

Online Resources to Stay Connected and Stay Well

Last Updated: 4/16/2020

LeadingAge New York has compiled a list of online resources for seniors and loved ones to use while practicing social distancing. We know that this is a difficult time. Social isolation is a growing issue for everyone, especially older adults that may be living alone or in a residential community.

Fortunately, many organizations are rising to the occasion and are offering free entertainment and virtual learning opportunities. We hope this guide will help you navigate the many online resources that are available to you. The resources linked below include online workshops, virtual tours of famous museums, live musical performances, mindfulness exercises and more!

If you have suggestions of things you'd like to see on our resources page, please contact Sarah Daly at sdaly@leadingageny.org.

CLASSES AND WORKSHOPS

Free Online Classes w/ Coursea

Free online college courses are also available with Coursea. Once you sign up, Coursea asks for your employment and education history so they can provide relevant course recommendations. Click here to join for free!

HEARTS - Holocaust Educational Arts

Holocaust Educational Arts is a virtual art gallery featuring the artworks of 17 Holocaust survivors. The artwork not only teaches us about the crucial history of the Holocaust, it also offers lessons on human resilience. The gallery has been cultivated by Selfhelp Community Services, and they invite you to share this with your friends, family, and community. It is free of charge and can be accessed on your laptop or smart phone. You can view the virtual viewing room here.

An interview with Fred Terna, a Holocaust survivor whose art is featured in the HEARTS virtual gallery, is also available on Selfhelp's Holocaust Education website. His piece "Late Cloud" is a powerful reflection on Fred's memory of Auschwitz chimney flames. Over video chat, Fred discusses everything from his personal history to what COVID-19 feels like for survivors.

Cooking with Survivors Series

Cooking with Holocaust Survivors is a video series that follows Holocaust survivors as they cook recipes that carry food memories from their lives before the war. Click here and scroll down to watch two free episodes online.

STAYING CONNECTED

Selfhelp's Virtual Senior Center

Selfhelp's Virtual Senior Center (VSC) offers socialization, education, and recreation in a secure online environment. The VSC offers 25-35 weekly interactive classes on a wide variety of topics including health & wellness, current events, art & history, and more! Class participants can see, hear, and talk to each other, which creates an engaging and dynamic class environment. Joining this online community can increase overall well-being with lasting positive impact on physical and mental health.

Selfhelp is offering a free four-week trial to residents of LeadingAge NY member organizations! The Virtual Senior Center is available to participants who have their own computer, webcam, microphone, and internet set up in their home. Click here to join the waitlist and get started!

To access the free trial, residents must write "LeadingAge NY Member" in the "Referring Agency & Program" field in the google form. Once you fill out the form, Selfhelp technicians will respond to your request as quickly as they can. They will review the inquiry and then work with residents directly to give access to the center and show them how to login and access classes. MENTAL HEALTH

Mindfulness & Meditation

Headspace is providing a free series of mindfulness exercises, meditations, and sleep experiences designed for people that are trying to cope in this uniquely stressful time. The company's new landing page reads, "from Buffalo to Long Island, Albany to the Lower East Side, this special NY collection of meditation, sleep, and movement exercises are here to support you through stressful and challenging times. Helping you — and your fellow New Yorkers — stay strong and be kind to yourselves, with a New York state of mind." Headspace says the free offerings are the result of a partnership with New York Gov. Andrew Cuomo.
